NATION HONORS MEN IN DRAFT

PRESIDENT, SENATORS, MEMBERS OF CONGRESS AND CABINET IN PARADE.

MANY TROOPS IN LINE

Much Enthusiasm Shown and Washington Howls Itself Hoarse—Allies Join.

Washington, Sept. 4.—The President and Congress of the United States and the allied nations, thru their diplomatic representatives, joined to-day in paying honor to the men selected from the District of Columbia for service in America's national army raised for the battle for democracy.

Washington, long used to glittering processions, to the blare and noise of inaugurals, opened its eyes and cheered itself hoarse at the spectacle. For two hours, while in other cities throuth the Nation other thousands moved over the first part of the long road that may lead to French battlefields, Pennsylvania Avenue heard the tramp of marching men, the mingle of spurs and the rumbling of artillery.

About 26,000 men, women and children passed a reviewing stand before the White House where the President and his guests watched the parade. More than half of the long line was in uniform.

From the corner of Fifteenth Street where Pennsylvania Avenue turns around the Treasury, the long mile to the foot of Capitol Hill was one stream of flags in the breeze and sparkling under a cloudless September sky. The President and those in the stand with him were kept at salute continually. No one of the dozens of officers of foreign armies and navies overlooked the tribute due the emblem of the great republic that has lined up on their side to make the world safe for the principles on which it was founded.

Wilson Heads Parade.
President Wilson himself, eyes to the front stepping out like a freshly trained recruit, marched at the head of the long line surrounded by a committee of citizens which arranged the parade. Behind him in unbroken ranks came most of the members of the Senate and House, in such a tribute as they probably never have given on any occasion in the long years since this country became a Nation.

When he reached the White House, the President left the ranks and took his place in the stand by Mrs. Wilson. It was the second time he had gone afoot over Pennsylvania Avenue. The first was when he led the preparedness parade before the United States went to war. Most of the members of the Cabinet, the Japanese Mission, Ambassadors Spring-Rice, of Great Britain, Jusserand, of France; Minister Calderon of Bolivia, and dozens of officers in uniforms of the armies of the nations that are fighting Germany were in the stand with them. All stood for the two hours with eyes steady on the spectacle. The President sat grim and unsmiling most of the time, watching intently while all trappings of war came by.

Seventy Senators in Line.
At the head of the Senate division came Senators Nelson and Warren, of the Union army, and Martin and Bankhead, who fought on the side of the Gray in the Civil War, and with them marched Senators Chamberlain, chairman of the Military Committee, and Lodge, ranking Republican of the Naval Committee. There were seventy Senators in line and only a few were absent who were not sick or unable to make the long trip.

The House turned out hundreds of its membership, headed by Speaker Clark and "Uncle Joe" Cannon.

Marines Attract Attention.
For more than an hour the flood that poured by the stand was in the brown of the khaki-clad army, with the exception of the fourteen hundred drafted men who in spite of their civilian clothes marched proudly and with more than a semblance of military formation. Regulars on foot, on horse back, on the caissons of field pieces and trundling machine guns; National Guardsmen of the District and Marines from nearby camps turned the Avenue into a golden flood of marching men with bayonets and sabers shining and grim sun-tanned faces that looked business like and ready for war.

In all the long line, the drafted men and the Marines attracted the most attention at the reviewing stand. The 1,200 young men who are in training at Fort Meyer for commissions in the new army, with only twelve days of drill behind them swung by the stand with ranks unbroken and with the easy tread of soldiers. But the Marines, company after company, swept past with never a ripple to disturb their steady flow.

Behind the troops were the Government Departments. Secretary Baker marched at the head of the War Department with Maj. Gen. Scott, Chief of Staff, and the ranking army officers on duty here in khaki just ahead of the clerks in civilian clothes. Secretary Daniels led the navy with Admiral Benson, Chief of Operations, his aides and scores of officers in the summer white of the navy.

The navy clerks carried a half dozen banners with legends that are watchwords in the American navy. "I have not begun to fight," was one. "Don't give up the ship," another. "Damn the torpedoes, go ahead," a third.

There were several hundred veterans of the Civil and Spanish Wars in the procession. An old man in faded blue, another in gray, marched at the head of the Americans who fought each other in the '60s. About them floated proudly a banner bearing this device "The United States." On another with G. A. R. on it were the words "Ready for Duty."

HARTFORD COLLEGE HAS GOOD OPENING

MONDAY MARKED 38th ANNUAL OPENING—83 HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS.

The thirty-eighth annual opening of Hartford College and High School on last Monday was an auspicious one. The auditorium overflowed with pupils, parents and friends of the school. Some time was pleasantly spent in listening to a number of good talks by patrons and friends of the school. Prof. Henry Leach, who is vice president, and a member of the faculty for several years, made the opening remarks, at the end of which he introduced Prof. J. F. Bruner, the new principal, who made a brief talk. Others also made good talks.

Eighty-three students matriculated in the collegiate department and altogether the prospects are exceedingly bright for a successful school year.

HAVOC WROUGHT IN AIR RAID

TEUTON FLYERS KILL 107 AND WOUND 86 IN ATTACK ON CHATHAM.

SIX AIRPLANES ATTACK

Immense Establishments And Men Aboard Ships Are Marks For German Airmen.

London, Sept. 4.—In last night's air raid 107 persons were killed and eighty-six wounded at Chatham, it is announced officially. The victims were naval ratings. Six airplanes took part in the raid.

A dispatch to the Star from Chatham says that part of the naval barracks there was struck by a bomb during last night's air raid, this causing serious loss of life. The Chatham dockyard, the message stated, entirely escaped damage.

In addition to the naval casualties one civilian was killed and six were injured. The announcement follows:

"Lord French (commander of the British home forces) reports that last night's air raid was carried out by about six enemy airplanes which proceeded up the south bank of the Thames estuary to Chatham. Bombs were dropped in the Isle of Thanet, and in the Sheerness-Chatham area between 10:40 p. m. and 11:30 p. m. There were no army casualties. Civilian casualties reported at present are: Killed, one; injured, six. The material damage was slight. Our machines went up and anti-aircraft guns came into action, but without result.

"The Secretary of the Admiralty reports that in the course of the air raid last night the following casualties were caused, to naval ratings: Killed, 107; wounded, eighty-six."

Reports received here from south coast towns say that during last night's raid the air along the coast and for miles inland resounded with noise of aircraft engines. One of the raiders passed over a coast town headed seaward, its engine making the loudest noise ever heard there from an aircraft. The sound resembled the noise of a Zeppelin and came from a great height.

Like the single aviator who dropped bombs on Dover Sunday night, those who came last night kept at a very high altitude and while their machines could be heard they could not be seen. Nevertheless British airplanes went up in pursuit. After dropping bombs over a wide area, many of them falling into fields or the sea, the raiders departed as quickly as they came.

Chatham is on the east bank of the Medway, thirty miles southeast of London. It is the seat of immense military and naval establishments, including a vast dockyard, an arsenal and extensive barracks.

The term naval ratings applies to the grade of men on board ship, usually those before the mast.

Italians Raid Austrian Naval Base. Rome, Sept. 4 (via London).—Thirty Italian airplanes dropped nine tons of bombs on the Austrian naval base at Pola, causing destruction and large conflagrations, it is announced officially.

The bombs were dropped on the Austrian fleet at anchor and also on military works.

All the Italian machines, although determinedly attacked, returned safely. The artillery fire has grown heavier on the Julian front, says the official announcement, which reads: "From Stelvio to Monte Rombon there were the usual patrol actions."

"On the Julian front there was more intense artillery duels and considerable activity by our airplanes."

"Last night, under favorable atmospheric conditions, thirty of our airplanes flew on Pola and bombarded the military works of this naval port and the enemy fleet at anchor in the harbor and in the Fasana canal. Nine tons of bombs were dropped on the targets, causing destruction and great conflagrations. Our machines, although attacked by seaplanes and shelled by anti-aircraft batteries, returned safely to their bases."

"On Saturday night enemy aircraft made a bombing raid on some localities in the plain between the Lower Isonzo and the Tagliamento, causing casualties among the civil population and soldiers in hospitals."

British Make Raids.

London, Sept. 4.—Continuing their raids over Belgium, British aviators on Sunday night made attacks in the vicinity of Bruges. A British airplane fought six Germans and shot down one of them. The following official account of these operations was given out to-day:

"Naval aircraft made a bombing raid at midnight Sunday on the docks, submarine shelters and railway sidings at Bruges. Bombs were observed to explode over the objectives and fire was caused adjacent to the lock gates of the Ecluse Canal."

"A raid also was made early Monday morning on the airdrome at Varsenaere (4 1-2 miles southwest of Bruges). Bombs were seen to explode among the sheds. One of our machines was attacked by six hostile aircraft and succeeded in shooting down one, completely out of control. In an engagement between one of our aircraft patrols and enemy machines there were three decisive combats. One of our machines failed to return."

The good luck of most successful men when analyzed is found to consist of about equal parts of Opportunity and Hard Work put out at interest.—Insurance Critic.

155 OUT OF 208 EXCUSED BY BOARD

LOCAL EXEMPTION BOARD MUST MAKE ANOTHER CALL TO GET QUOTA.

Of the 208 registered men who were recently summoned before the Local Exemption Board for examination for war service, 155 were either rejected or filed claims for exemptions, which claims were allowed by the board. One claimed exemption on grounds of dependents, which was disallowed. 33 failed to file any sort of claims for exemption and were accepted, and 11 others failed to appear for examination and in the natural course pursued, will be certified and placed upon the list with those who passed and have been accepted. The list not appearing for examination is as follows:

Luttrell Kirby Parks, Owen Parks, Col. Thomas Orville Lloyd, Squire Willoughby, Ray Sylvester Gaither, James Wm. Johnston, George Stevens, Charlie L. Howard, Albert Carl Park, Ruey Franklin Taylor and Homer Lee Huff.

Wm. Gorgon Mer, claim for dependent, disallowed.

The following passed medical examination and were accepted by the board and in due time will be certified:

Edward Nall (col.), Walter Watson, Ellis Brown, Elton W. Wilson, Frank Allen Fern, Roscoe Westerfield, Bert Leach, Virgil C. Maflin, Robert H. Ree Price, Orlando Bottom, Alexander Bozarth, Archie Dempsey Birch, Speed Monroe, Jno. D. Ham, James V. Coleman, David Leslie Hurt, Elijah Walker Daniel, Lonnie D. Vick, Carl Moore Murray, C. I. Tinsley, Herman Robinson, Alva Vernon Wade, Cullen W. Conerly, Ellis Johnson, Willis G. Cobb, William Mack Allen, Noah Ward, Tuell Rogers, Eugene Coleman (col.), Guy Everett McDaniel, Carl Sapp, George Whobrey, Rudy Ernest Dempsey.

The following passed the examination and were accepted, tho they claimed exemption on occupational grounds, being engaged in agricultural pursuits. Under present rulings their names were certified to the district board for action:

Orin W. Moore, Carlisle Williams, Robert Elijah Chinn, Gilbert Westerfield, Arthur Rhoads, Clyde Wendell Hawkins, Lester H. Wright, Tice D. James.

Should all of the above list be accepted, it yet leaves Ohio county sixty odd short of her quota and another call must be made to fill up the list.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Amsterdam, Sept. 5.—(British Admiralty per Wireless Press.)—According to the most reliable authority the next session of the German Reichstag will be devoted exclusively to the question of peace. The majority has decided to challenge the statement of the government regarding its minimum peace program, and it is said the government will yield, with a view to peace negotiations before Christmas.

The German government, according to this authority, favors the plenipotentiaries meeting either at The Hague, at Berne or at Copenhagen, but preferably The Hague.

GERMAN SPY SUSPECT IS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Danville, Ky., Sept. 4.—Clarence F. Brooks, claiming Detroit as his home, was arrested at Kings Mountain today by United States Marshal C. F. Winfrey and Detectives J. A. Coleman and W. E. Wallin, of the Southern railway system, on suspicion of being a German spy.

Upon being arrested drawings and letters of suspicious character were found in his possession. Near the place of arrest is a tunnel, of which Brooks is said to have had drawings. At this point the railroad is double-tracked and on the roadside is a earload of dynamite for blasting purposes. Brooks arrived there several days ago and had spent each day looking over the ground surrounding the tunnel and the tunnel itself and, it is said, had unintentionally dropped one of the drawings near the north end of the tunnel.

Brooks claims to have come to Kings Mountain for the purpose of meeting a young woman with whom he had corresponded through an advertisement in a matrimonial paper. Officers say Brooks told several conflicting stories and was unable to give a satisfactory explanation of the drawings and the letters in his possession. He was brought to Danville and arraigned before United States Commissioner Lawwill, who set the date for his examining trial for next Monday. Meanwhile he is being held here on the charge of high treason.

MINE OFFICIALS ARE SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Middlesboro, Ky., Sept. 3.—At the Lower Hignite Coal Company, five miles from Middlesboro, while L. B. Gunn, superintendent, and six men were going to the mine they were fired on this morning by what is supposed to have been strike sympathizers from ambush. Three men were hit. Gillus Johnson was seriously wounded and Gunn and another man slightly wounded. Over 200 shots were fired.

Shotguns loaded with small shot and some high-powered guns were used.

An effort is being made to surround the men doing the shooting, and it is likely arrests will be made. Ball county officers have been notified and are on their way to the mine and will make every possible effort to get the men implicated.

There is much indignation coming from all sources in Middlesboro over the shooting, and some very frank and open expressions are being made on the streets of Middlesboro. More trouble is anticipated before the day is over.

VAIN ATTEMPT TO PICKET MANSION

THIRTEEN WOMEN SCOOPED AND DEMONSTRATIONS ABANDONED.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Thirteen militants of the Women's party were arrested today when they attempted to "picket" the White House just before President Wilson marched at the head of the parade in honor of the District of Columbia's quota for the national army.

The women announced in advance that they had enough volunteers to last all afternoon, but after the police had escorted away several groups of banner-bearers the demonstration was abandoned.

All the prisoners were released on bond to appear tomorrow.

The women's party headquarters announced to-night that Justice Robb, of the District Supreme Court, who recently has granted appeals to sixteen banner-bearers sentenced to pay fines or serve thirty days in the workhouse, had informed their counsel that no more appeals would be allowed while the sixteen were pending.

ONLY ONE BUYER OF WHEAT—UNCLE SAMUEL

Chicago, Sept. 4.—There was just one buyer in the Chicago wheat market today and he didn't even visit the Board of Trade. He was Uncle Sam, and he had an office in the Otis Building, two blocks from the Board.

There was one basic price, $2.20, fixed by President Wilson. The method pursued was very simple. The man who received the wheat had it placed in an elevator, obtained a receipt from the elevator, took his receipt to the Otis Building and got his money.

Through a misunderstanding a little spot wheat sold at slightly above the Government basis, but the local representative of the food administrator issued a warning that there must be no repetition of the offense.

RAIL DAMAGES TOBACCO IN DAVENESS COUNTY

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 3.—Thousands of dollars' damage was done to the tobacco crop on farms directly south of Owensboro by a hailstorm this afternoon. Corn crops in the district visited by the hail were also damaged to some extent. The storm was severe in some sections, barns being wrecked, and in one instance two mules were killed by lightning. One barn was struck by lightning and destroyed.

SWEET TOOTH PROVIDED FOR

TONS OF "GOODIES" ORDERED BY UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

ARE NOT ALL FRILLS

Plenty of Substantials Are Also Obtained in Huge Amounts For The Navy.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Uncle Sam is going to take care of Jack's sweet tooth, regardless of whether he is at a naval training station ashore or chasing German submarines in the North Sea.

This became apparent this week, when the Navy Department asked for bids on tons of sweetstuffs ranging from strawberry jam to tapioca pudding.

Kentucky mothers, aware of the fondness of sons for sweets, need have no fear that their boys in the sea forces of Uncle Sam will pine for home on that account.

Although the Navy Department followed the usual stiff and formal lines in advertising for bids, the articles listed go far to substantiate the tradition that the American fighting man is more fond of sweets than that of any other nation.

Some of Sweets.

Here are some of the things the Navy Department is trying to buy for the sailors and marines:

Twenty-two tons of apple butter. Seventeen tons of dried currants. Six and a half tons of mincemeat. Sixteen and a half tons of dried peaches.

Thirty tons of sliced pineapples. Six tons of tapioca.

Sixty tons of assorted fruit jams.

One and a half tons of shredded coconut.

Seven tons of cornstarch.

One thousand five hundred gallons of syrup.

It might result in dreams worthy of Epicure to try to figure out just how many peach pies there are in 37,000 pounds of dried peaches, or how many "helpings" of cornstarch pudding there are in 14,000 pounds of cornstarch, but the application of liberal quantities of water will stretch the supply considerably. These statistics are not given to enhance the suffering of any dyspeptic readers, but to set at rest the minds of Kentucky mothers.

Another reassuring fact found in the bids advertised by the Navy Department is that there will be plenty of substantials, too. The navy meals will not be all frills. For example, here are a few of the things the department is seeking:

Thirty tons of bacon.

Twenty-three and a half tons of corn beef.

Seven and a half tons of dried beef.

Two thousand five hundred tons of flour.

Four and a half tons of codfish and haddock.

Twenty-five tons of macaroni.

Four tons of salt mackerel.

Twenty-seven tons of Vienna sausage.

There will be plenty of seasoning, too. Lisent!

Two tons of mustard.

Thirty-two thousand gallons of catsup.

Fifty tons of salt.

Three and a half tons of vinegar.

These are a few of the things on the programme for the fighters of the seas. Bids for similar supplies and in like quantities are being prepared constantly.

Sudden changes of temperature and underwear bring spring colds with stuffed up head, sore throat and general symptoms. A dose of Dr. King's New Discovery is sure relief, this happy combination of antiseptic balsams clears the head, soothes the irritated membranes and what might have been a lingering cold is broken up. Don't stop treatment when relief is first felt as a half cured cold is dangerous. Take Dr. King's New Discovery till your cold is gone.

CONTINUED FIRES SWEEP NORTHWESTERN FORESTS

Washington, Sept. 1.—With the most serious fire situation in a number of years threatening millions of feet of western timber, it has been necessary for the Forest Service to suspend some of its operations in order to concentrate all available forces in fighting the forest fires.

Reports received from the Northwest indicate that the situation is more dangerous than at any time this year. In Montana and northern Idaho two thousand men are fighting the flames under the direction of the Forest rangers. In these two States alone approximately $170,000 has already been spent this season, and that figure is increasing by approximately $15,000 a day.

In Oregon and Washington valuable timber intended to furnish airplane stock for the fighting forces of the United States and its allies is being threatened by the flames. Logging operations are so badly interfered with that several mills now supplying the Government with this class of material may be forced to discontinue operations. Numerous fires are reported as the result of incendiarism.

The reports state that in many places little or no rain has fallen for weeks. The forests are now so dry that any fire which occurs is apt to become a dangerous conflagration, while high winds make it difficult to control even the smallest blaze. With such conditions, it is pointed out, there is need to keep all persons out of the woods. In order to accomplish this the Governor of Oregon has postponed the opening of the hunting season in that State.

In spite of the unusually dangerous season, it is stated that until last week there has been a comparatively small loss of timber on the National Forests, private owners having suffered most of the damage done. This is largely explained as due to the increased efficiency of the fire-fighting force which has profited by the lessons of the past year. In many cases, too, luck has been on the side of the rangers in handling particularly dangerous fires. The outbreak of fires in the past few days is taken by officials to indicate that the situation is growing more serious.

The whole organization of the Forest Service, in the affected Districts, is devoting itself exclusively to fire fighting. In accordance with a pre-arranged plan, men from Forests where there are no fires are relieving the rangers who have been worn out by their long exertions.

While it may be possible to hold the damage to a minimum by these and other methods, officials say that not until the fall rains come will the danger cease.

Has a High Opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have a high opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets for biliousness and as a laxative," writes Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Charleston, Ill. "I have never found anything so mild and pleasant to use. My brother has also used these tablets with satisfactory results."

To the Editor of The Hartford Republican:

Dear Sir:—If you will allow me space in your valuable paper, I shall be grateful for the courtesy, and the opportunity offered thereby of saying a few words to the Republicans of Ohio county. In the outset I want to say that I am indeed thankful to my many friends who were loyal to and supported me in my race for the Republican nomination for Jailer of Ohio county, in the recent primary election. To those who saw fit to vote otherwise I have the best regards and kindest of feelings. To the many Democrats who so faithfully pledged to me their support should I have been the nominee, I want to return unto you my sincere thanks.

Four years ago, as you are aware, I sought the same position. Then I met defeat just as I have met defeat now, yet my confidence in the Republican principles has not been in the least shaken. I have always been loyal to the Republican party and shall so remain, because I believe the party is larger than any man or set of men. I have no ill feelings toward any of my opponents and I shall gladly do all I can to secure the election of every nominee on the ticket. And now the primary election is over, let's pull off the old fighting robes that divided us in our family fight, and put on the robe of Republican unionism. Perch the old flag on the flagpole and carry it to victory this fall, electing every man from Representative to Constable without the loss of one. I am,

Yours very truly,
J. W. DUVALL.

Experience the Best Teacher.

It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of others as well as our own? The experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than that of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it. It is prompt and effectual and pleasant to take.

Protection is a policy which hurts business when it is not in operation, like the boy's definition of salt, "Something that makes your potato taste bad if you don't put any on."

For All the Shooting Sports---

Remington UMC

Few sportsmen nowadays judge a day's sport merely by the size of the bag they bring home with them.

Yet a man's object in shooting is to hit what he aims at.

There's nothing like the thrill of cutting down a fast bird; of getting the clay that sails out at an unexpected angle; of scoring a "possible" when the light is bad, and mirage makes the bull's-eye swim almost out of sight.

As a sportsman, you are willing to take chances with natural conditions—but you want to be sure of your shooting equipment.

Whether a Shotgun, a Big Game Rifle, or the smallest .22 for the boy—it is the Remington make you want.

And in ammunition, whether Shot Shells or Metallic Cartridges, it is worth finding the Red Ball Mark of Remington UMC on the box for the sake of the better results that Remington UMC will give you.

IS THIS A SOUTHERN DEMOCRATIC WAR?

Lord Northcliffe, in a recent article, proved conclusively that democracy was a poor war maker. We wonder what the eminent English journalist thinks now that he has seen the "democracy" of this country, at first hand, shackled as it is by self-centered and selfish southern interests? To pass lightly over the subject of the present draft which favors the South, and to ignore the fact that Germany is indirectly receiving supplies of cotton from the South, simply consider the direct and tangible evidence of Southern financial "cooperation" in this war. At the market price for cotton about eleven million bales would bring nearly a billion and a half dollars for the lint cotton. At present prices the cotton seed would bring about three hundred and thirty million dollars additional. In 1914 the cotton farmers received from four to six cents for their cotton. In 1917 they will receive from twenty-six to thirty-five cents. No district in the world has received the benefit from the war that the Southern states have, with their cotton product, and yet our Southern statesmen have secured absolute Protection and immunity for this industry and not a penny of taxation upon it. This fact is all the more impressive when we note that there is no embargo on cotton, nor is there likely to be. Is this a Southern Democratic War?

Perhaps this explains a little more vividly what it means when the Democrats of the North aid in turning over the direction of government and financial affairs to the Democrats of the South and the radical West, the former interpreting loyalty as complete immunity for the Southern States from the burdens imposed by war time conditions.—The Lynn (Mass.) Review for August, 1917.

WORLD'S LARGEST SELF-COOLED TRANSFORMERS

Six of the largest self-cooled transformers in the world have recently been manufactured for the Carnegie Steel Company by the General Electric Company, of Schenectady, New York. These giant handlers of electricity to bring the commercial electricity sent for miles overland by steel-supported transmission wires under high tension into the comparatively safe and easily handled voltages which may be applied to motors harnessed to industrial tasks.

One of these black giants has an electrical capacity of 45,000 kv-a., and is used to change the high tension current at 44,000 volts into 6,600 volts.

The total radiating surface of the radiators which are used to keep the operating temperature of the transformer down to the lowest point possible is one million square inches. The cooling is effected by means of the circulation of crude oil which acts as a cooling agent and also a highly efficient insulator for the highly charged core and turns of wire.

Shipping a transformer of this size is quite as much of a problem to the shipping engineer as its building is to the electrical engineer. Often it is impossible to deliver a large transformer by means of the usual type of flat car. To overcome this difficulty a special car is sometimes used by the General Electric Company in making its transformer deliveries. This car is supported by heavier trucks than the usual car requires and the load is carried closer to the rails, thus giving the maximum clearance for tunnels, bridges, and other wayside structures.

11 EUROPEAN SOLDIERS IN EACH 1,000 DIE IN WAR

Washington, Sept. 1.—About eleven soldiers die in action or of wounds in each 1,000 of mobilized strength on the Western European front, according to figures compiled by the Committee on Public Information, based on the report of M. Tardieu, French High Commissioner, that during the Marne and Charleroi battles casualties were 5.41 per cent of the mobilized strength and estimates of military experts in this country that fatalities have never exceeded 20 per cent of the casualties. This applies only to British, French and Belgian troops.

Did it ever occur to you that you might not be using the telephone in the right way?

Do you speak sideways, above, below, or six inches away from the transmitter of your telephone?

You should talk directly into the transmitter—not simply at it. Keep your lips about one inch from the mouthpiece. Speak in an even tone. It is not necessary to shout.

AMERICANS WILL FIGHT IN SPRING

SAYS MAJ. GEN. PERSHING, COMMANDING U. S. FORCES IN FRANCE.

Paris, Sept. 1.—Maj. Gen. Pershing, who has remained in Paris clearing up the work at his old headquarters and who is not going to field headquarters until Sunday or Monday, declared to-day, in connection with plans for the coming winter, that the American people must learn the meaning and value of patience, and not expect that the expeditionary forces landed in France can be rushed immediately to the front line trenches. To put an inadequate, insufficiently supplied force into actual combat, he said, would merely be making a mistake, which the Germans unquestionably have hoped and expected the United States would make. It is the determination, rather, that when America does take her place in the line shoulder to shoulder with the other Allies next year, she will be fully prepared to go through the summer campaign and make the Germans feel the full weight of her military power.

"Those of us who have fully studied the situation and who know what is necessary to be done," said Gen. Pershing to the Associated Press, "are anxious that the people at home shall strive to realize the immensity of the task in which we are engaged and shall, through patience and confidence, help us to accomplish that task in the shortest possible time. Everything is going well with us, both as a nation and as an army. We are making giant strides day after day, but we are just started."

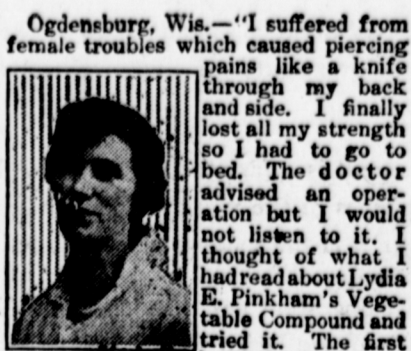

"We came into the war without an army. We have always been a peace loving people. So now we must build an entire new organization, and build it so big and so strong that we can take our place along with our allies, who already have had three years' time and experience."

"I realize how very difficult it is for the people at home to visualize the war, to visualize the efforts that are behind the war. Our problems are greater than any France or Great Britain had to solve, but we are solving them and will continue to do so."

"It is impossible to create a vast fighting machine merely by the wave of a wand. I wish that it were possible to do so and that we might be fighting the German government this minute. We know that the only way to defeat the German army is to hammer it and keep on hammering it. That is what we expect to be doing with all our fresh strength and enthusiasm during next year's campaign."

PAINS SHARP AND STABBING

Woman Thought She Would Die. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ogdensburg, Wis.—"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ETTA DORRIS, Ogdensburg, Wis.

Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

But until we can properly take our place in the line, the people must be patient and as confident as we are, who know what we are doing and what we must do.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

MISSOURI FOOD CROPS IMMENSE THIS YEAR

Columbia, Mo., Sept. 1.—Two hundred and eighty million bushels of corn, 42,404,960 bushels of oats and 22,777,000 bushels of wheat will be Missouri's contribution to the fall war crop bins, according to the September crop report issued to-day by Jewell Mayes, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture.

The oats crop is the largest in fourteen years and the corn crop exceeds all of previous years since 1902. The planting of winter wheat is reported 128 per cent. as compared with this year's harvesting.

GERMANS HOLD FAITH IN U-BOAT WARFARE

AMERICANS WILL NEVER BECOME DANGEROUS, SAYS SCHERER.

Amsterdam, Sept. 1.—Confidence in the effect of unrestricted submarine warfare is expressed by Admiral Weinhardt Scheer, commander of the German battle fleet, in an interview in the Leipzig Tageblatt, the Admiral declaring that he expected "everything" from it.

"This confidence," says the Admiral, "is shared by all our submarine commanders and no difference of opinion exists about it in our navy. It would be a mistake to name a definite date, but I am fully convinced that if the rate of the sinkings continues as at present the day must come when England will recognize that the war does not pay."

Questioned about losses of submarines and as to anti-submarine methods, Admiral Scheer said:

"With almost ideal obstinacy the English miss the mark and so far we have only been met with guns, nets and mines and not with any new anti-submarine appliances. I can confirm the statement recently made regarding our losses, which on the average are two to three monthly and are more than equaled by new construction."

Regarding America's support of Great Britain, Admiral Scheer had this to say:

"I do not underestimate it, neither do I attach too much importance to it. The Americans may make themselves unpleasant by means of increased supplies of airplanes, technical material, etc., but they can hardly harm us seriously from a military point of view, and they will never become dangerous. They will no more be able to turn the scale in favor of the Entente than Italy or Rumania."

Admiral Scheer expressed his conviction that the submarine will have decided the issue of the war before America is ready to send a large army to Europe.

SHEEP PARADE GIVEN TO PUSH WOOL CONSERVATION

Chicago, Sept. 1.—A flock of several hundred sheep, escorted by brass bands and detachments of soldiers and sailors, followed by numerous floats, gamboled through Chicago's business streets to-day.

It was the city's first sheep parade, and was given under the auspices of the National Sheep and Wool Bureau to promote interest in wool conservation.

Six young women, appropriately garbed, acted as shepherdesses and were kept busy trying to keep their charges from dashing into hotel and shop doors along the line of march.

Some of the signs carried by marchers in the parade read as follows: "There is no substitute for wool—we need more sheep." "Food and wool for workers will win the war." "Red Cross work needs more wool." "Homemakers Guild advocates sheep raising for women."

The prize lamb in the parade will be sold at auction and the proceeds given to the Red Cross.

The committee in charge of the demonstration will urge that similar parades be held in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities.

AMERICANS WOULD QUIT FRENCH ARMY FOR U. S.

Paris, Sept. 1.—American aviators serving in the French army, including the relatively small group forming the Lafayette Escadrille, have been canvassed by American officers as to whether they wished to leave their present service and join the American army. Seventy per cent of the Americans immediately said they would like to go to the American army and aid in the formation of an experienced aerial corps.

Almost all the remaining 30 per cent replied that they would join the American army conditionally. One condition often mentioned was the paragraph in the United States army regulations forbidding American soldiers from wearing foreign decorations. Many of these aviators have won by deeds of great courage some one or all of the French military orders, the Legion of Honor, the War Cross or the Military Medal. Under the French service regulations these decorations or ribbons representing them must be worn always on the uniform. The Americans are proud to have these distinctions and consider it would be lacking in respect for them to go into the American uniform and discard the French decorations.

It has been suggested that the American regulations might be changed by new legislation which might also include a provision for the bestowal of the American Medal of Honor upon foreign officers and sailors for conspicuous gallantry.

CARRANZA RENEWS HIS ATTITUDE OF NEUTRALITY

Mexico City, Sept. 1.—Renewed assurance that Mexico would remain neutral in the world war was given by President Venustiano Carranza to-night in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Mexican Congress.

HEAVY BLOWS AND HUNGER ALONE WILL WIN BIG WAR

An Atlantic Port, Sept. 1.—A party of prominent Britishers arrived here to-day on a passenger steamship to join Lord Northcliffe, British commissioner in the United States, and assist him in purchasing war supplies. They will also go to Washington for a conference with Government officials.

In discussing the war a member of the party who asked that the identity of its members be withheld, said he does not believe the conflict will end until about this time next year.

"The Germans will never be overcome by hunger alone," he declared. "Neither will they be overcome by assaults on their front while they are convinced of the weaknesses of their opponents. It must be a combination of hunger and continual assaults that will win."

"They are going to be hungry still more, and then is the time for the Allies to deliver the blows against the line that will settle the question for all time."

"The embargo of the United States against them is one of the strongest weapons yet put into our hands, and if this had gone into effect a year ago the war would have been over by now. We have got to keep them hungry and make them still hungrier and keep on delivering the blows against them while they are in this condition."

Medals Offered.

Medals are offered by the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission to the teachers who teach the largest number of men registered for army service to read and write. A handsome gold medal will be given to the teacher in the State who teaches the largest number and a handsome bronze medal to the teacher in each Congressional District who leads with the largest number. These medals will be made in the semblance of the State Capitol, having a center with faces of four heroic Kentuckians grouped around it. On the opposite side will be the teacher's name and the inscription "Awarded to ——— for great patriotic service to the State of Kentucky and to the Government of the United States in teaching illiterate soldiers during the world war 1917."

200,000 VOLUNTEERED FOR U. S. ARMY IN FIVE MONTHS

Washington, August 30.—More than 200,000 war volunteers have enlisted in the regular army since April 1. This represents approximately 17,000 men in excess of the number needed on April 1 to build the regular service to its full authorized war strength.

Figures made public today show that Pennsylvania has now supplied 22,289 men on its quota of 15,330; Illinois, 16,923 on a quota of 11,276; New York, 21,970 on a quota of 18,226; California 7,656 on a quota of 4754, and Nevada, first state to complete its quota, 983 men on a quota of 162.

If soap gets much higher maybe little Willie's ma will keep some of it out of his eyes on bath days.

When the Germans get to Petrograd they may burn it, but its our notion they won't find much to sack.

A compromise revenue bill has been agreed upon, the total levy of which, will be $1,286,000,000 upon war profits. The whole levy is to raise a total of $2,522,000,000. Some money, son, some money.

Was the Mail Clerk removed from the one and only train a day, that traversed this 55 mile strip of country for the purpose of saving extra fuel for the R. R. Co.? Or was it because the clerk aged so much with each trip?

Seven hundred and sixteen drafted men reached Camp Taylor Wednesday, that being the first appearance of the men of the new National Army. A fellow by the name of Monk from Illinois was the first to sign the roster. Guess that there is not much in a name tho.

As a rule we are for the women doing just about as they please, but it looks to us as the some of that bunch of "shemales" who have been and are now trying to do picket duty at the Whitehouse, many of whom, have been making spectacles of themselves, should lock up and go home. The country is getting tired of such stuff and these women are only hurting the cause of women generally, by their mode of procedure.

This railroad, known as the M. H. & E., is some 55 miles in length, it traverses a fertile country, for the most part. The people ship and receive all of their freight over this road and, if they ever go anywhere, they are most generally forced to hunt some other means of travel, because they can't get anywhere and should they succeed in getting away from home they can't get back, so what is the use for such a railroad. People residing in the lower portion of the county, within sight of the railroad can't possibly come to Hartford, the county seat, transact business requiring two hours or more with any of the county officials and get home over the railroad except they stay over one whole day and two nights. Some of these people gave, or practically gave the right of way for the road, thinking the country would be greatly benefitted by the construction and operation of a railroad thru this community. For a long, long time now, the one train operated has had a passenger coach hooked up behind cattle, lumber, fertilizer, coal and all other sorts of cars, stopping and switching at every point and you may either ride that way, stay at home, or as before stated, hunt up some other means of egress and ingress. To cap the whole and unhappy situation with the most pleasant capsheaf, the great United States Government, which is continuously asking the people along this road for all sorts of sacrifices, for the purchase of Liberty Bonds, and every thing imaginable, for the saving of a few paltry dollars per month, has removed the Mail Clerk from this train and made the mail service worthless. Verily we are being well cared for, in these parts. We hope that the officer who is responsible for the removal of our one railway mail clerk, receives his mail as much as five or six times per day, and that his cigars are of the finest and most rest-producing variety known, and that he may never want for anything except it be an opportunity to take from the people the little they have in the way of accommodations.

CANADIAN PLOTTERS FOILED IN CONSPIRACY

Montreal, Sept. 4.—Frustration of plots to assassinate Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, and Arthur Meighan, Solicitor General, and to dynamite the Parliament buildings at Ottawa was announced by the police today as having been effected by the arrest of anti-Conscriptionist agitators alleged to have been responsible for the blowing up about a month ago of the summer home of Lord Athelstan.

Lord Athelstan was first to be murdered as he drove from his home at Cartierville to Montreal, then his home and the offices of his newspaper, the Montreal Star, were to be blown up; the death of Solicitor General Meighan was next on the programme; then the Premier was to be assassinated, with the blowing up of the Parliament buildings to follow. The plot to kill Lord Athelstan failed because Elie Lalumiere, one of the eleven men now under arrest in connection with the conspiracy, removed the cartridges from the revolvers of the men who went to waylay him.

The police say they now have clues which indicate that the plots were hatched by a person with strong German affiliations.

TRANSPORTATION OF NEW ARMY PRESENTS BIG TASK

The task which will confront the railroads of the country during the next thirty days, when it will be necessary to move 687,000 men of the new National Army and 350,000 men of the National Guard to their various training camps, is indicated by a communication which has been received from the Washington headquarters by M. L. Akers, local representative of the Railroad War Board.

An idea of the work which the railroads will be called upon to do is emphasized by comparison of the army movement and the equipment needed to move but one field army of 80,000 men and their equipment. Such a unit requires 6,229 cars, made up into 366 trains, with a like number of locomotives and train crews. At the same time, there must be no interruption to the transportation of commercial freight, war supplies and passengers.

Officers Ask For More Pay.

Officers of the Kentucky National Guard regiments are writing to Adj. Gen. Ellis' office for their "fogies." "Foggy" is five years' service, and for each "foggy" army officers are given an increase in pay. The rule heretofore has applied only to regulars and volunteers, but the word got around that continuous service in the National Guard will count in increasing the pay of officers drafted with their regiments into Federal service, and it will mean a big increase for many of the older ones. Col. Jouett Henry, of the Third, for instance, would draw $5,000 instead of $4,000, as he has been in beyond the twenty-year period, which draws the maximum allowed.

RIGA ABANDONED BY THE RUSSIANS

THE BALTIC SEAPORT GIVEN UP TO GERMANS—LITTLE RESISTANCE.

Petrograd, Sept. 3.—The Russians have abandoned Riga, the War Office announces.

The statement says an order has been given for the abandonment of the Riga region on account of the threatening situation.

Some Russian detachments voluntarily left their positions, the War Office reports, and are retiring toward the north.

Riga, Russia's principal Baltic port, has been abandoned to the Germans under the threat of an offensive by land and sea, in which the deciding stroke on the land side was delivered by the Germans last Saturday.

The fate of Riga was virtually sealed when German troops, powerfully initiating their offensive, forced a crossing of the Dvina southeast of the city and began to push northward after making good their foothold on the right bank of the stream.

Menaced also by the attack of a column of Teutonic forces moving from Mitau, southwest of Riga, and by the German naval forces recently reported hovering in the vicinity of the Gulf of Riga, the Russian military authorities evidently considered the city no longer tenable and decided to evacuate it.

The possible ultimate military consequences of this development are difficult to estimate. The right flank of the entire Russian Western front was anchored on the Gulf of Riga at a point to the west of the city, and with this anchorage apparently lost the possible strategical developments of the situation seem infinite.

Germans' Purpose.
Much depends on the purpose of the Germans and the size of the forces at their disposal for operations in this war theater. It is too early yet for it to be made apparent whether they will be content at present with occupation of the Baltic seaport the Russians have left them, or if the advantage is to be pushed and an attempt made to swing back the entire Russian line on this front, creating an opening for an operation by land and water, with Petrograd as the objective.

Riga, capital of the government of Livonia, had a population of more than 500,000 persons before the war, and, aside from Petrograd, was the most important Russian commercial and industrial town having access to the Baltic. It is situated at the southern extremity of the Gulf of Riga, a stretch of water 100 miles long and sixty miles wide, Riga lying at the point where the Dvina empties into the Gulf. The port is icebound during virtually one-third of the year. It had a very large German population before the opening of hostilities, and it is interesting to note that it was founded in 1158 by German merchants as a storehouse, the city passing through the control of various Northern nationalities during the centuries, until finally, in 1721, it was incorporated with the Russian empire. Its commercial standing is indicated by the fact that it was the third seaport of Russia, only Petrograd and Odessa exceeding it in importance.

Eyes On Riga.

The Germans long have had their eyes upon Riga, and at the close of the great campaign of 1915, when Poland was overrun and large sections of Russian soil occupied by the Teutonic forces, an effort was made by Field Marshal von Hindenburg to break the line of the Dvina between Riga and Dvinsk, 110 miles to the southeast. The Russians at that time, however, were able to hold their grip on the line, being aided by the advent of winter. During last year no serious offensive was undertaken by the Germans on the Northern front, their energies in the Eastern war theater being directed elsewhere in resisting the Brussloff offensive and in the Rumanian campaign.

Pigs--Patriotism and Profit

The War has placed a big responsibility on the American pork producer.

Quoting President Wilson, "Without abundant food, alike for the Armies and the people now at war, the whole great enterprise upon which we have embarked will break down and fail."

The program of our Government is a far-reaching one. Adequate food production is the most important of all phases of the work so far undertaken. The World's food reserve is low. The FARMER is the food producer, so it is up to him.

We expect to be in constant operation and furnish daily, Liquid Feed sufficient for 20,000 to 25,000 hogs, and Glenmore Dried Grains, as part ration, for 8,000 dairy cattle.

Our feed supplemented with clover, corn fodder, etc., makes pork at less than seven cents per pound, which is now selling on open market at twenty cents, with indications of going higher.

Get busy in raising hogs and encourage others to do so. Call or write us for particulars.

verdinghe, Woumen and Roulers do not include the men from 16 to 60 years old," it says. "The Germans oblige these men to do trench work; several of these men have been killed by shell fragments.

"The evacuation is carried out in the following manner: The inhabitants, loaded with their bundles, are escorted to the station. The women, children and old men are placed in the first railway carriages; the men from 16 to 60 years old in the rear ones. When the train starts the rear carriages are uncoupled. On reaching their destination the families realize their sad fate.

"All the workmen of the regions of Courtrai and Menin have been requisitioned; 2,000 civilians have thus been seized and compelled to work at the trenches."

NEGROES WHO SHOT SOLDIERS AT LARGE

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 3.—Military and city police failed in their search today for the negroes who last night shot Frank Wilcoxson, twenty years old, of Jeffersonville, Ind., and Ben Evans, nineteen, of Hopkinsville, Ky., the former a private in Company A, Second Kentucky Infantry, and the latter a private in Company G, Third Kentucky. Wilcoxson was shot in the calf of the leg, and Evans in the left ankle.

Both injured men were taken to St. Joseph's Hospital for treatment. The Bullet in Evans' ankle has not yet been removed. The negroes ran after shooting at the soldiers, and no trace of them has been found. The military authorities have taken every precaution to prevent any clash between the soldiers and negroes.

Officials believe that the attack by the negroes was the direct outcome of the trouble between several soldiers and negroes on Saturday, that almost developed into a race riot. The police have the situation in hand, and fear no more trouble, however.

SEEK BURIED GOLD IN OLD INDIAN MOUNDS

Decatur, Ala., Sept. 1.—Indian mounds in this section will probably be leveled by fortune seekers. An Indian doctor recently told how a party of Indians from the Indian Nation in Oklahoma had come into the Tennessee Valley and removed a quantity of gold from one of the mounds.

Every year, during the late summer, there are rumors of Indians mysteriously visiting the hunting grounds of the Cherokees for the purpose of recovering gold. The gold, it is said, was dug from the mountains of North Alabama and North Georgia and when the Cherokees were moved to the West they buried their gold, fearing their white conquerors would take it from them.

TROOPS CHARGE STRIKE RIOTERS

1,000 MEN ATTEMPT TO WRECK STREET CARS; ROUTED AT BAYONET POINT.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 3.—Charging with fixed bayonets, Company F, Ninth Illinois Infantry, tonight dispersed a mob of more than 1,000 strike sympathizers which attacked the headquarters of the street railway company here after wrecking four street cars.

The rioters, most of whom had been celebrating Labor Day, broke in confusion before the bayonets and gunshots of the soldiers. One man, bayoneted in the arm, was the only person reported seriously hurt. No shots were fired.

Disorder began when the strike sympathizers returned here from labor day exercises in Bloomington. Attacking street cars in the main business district the mob removed motormen and conductors and turned the cars loose on a hill, demolishing four of them. They then proceeded to the company headquarters, where it was reported several officers of the company had gathered. A guard of six soldiers stationed at the building prevented the mob entering, but was powerless to check a fusillade of bricks which splintered the plate glass windows and allowed the rioters to pilage the electric supplies on display, according to the police. Reinforcements were called and dispersed the crowd. Rioting has been intermittent for several weeks, since street car operatives went out on strike to enforce recognition of the union. One policeman has been killed.

Twenty arrests have been made so far by Sheriff's forces and by the soldiers. Liquor obtained in Bloomington is charged by the authorities with being responsible for the outbreak.

At midnight the city was quiet, but soldiers were patrolling the streets.

Deep Salt Bed.

In Kansas a deep well struck rock salt at 690 feet below the surface and penetrated 600 feet of rock salt in beds from 5 to 60 feet thick, according to the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior. A large area in this State is underlain by salt, which is mined by many shafts and obtained by pumping brine. Drilling for oil in Texas and Louisiana has revealed the presence of tremendously thick deposits of rock salt at a depth of a few hundred feet. Thicknesses of 2,000 feet are common, and one drill hole passed through more than 3,000 feet of rock salt. Most of the salt made in Utah is produced by evaporating the water of Great Salt Lake, and in California by evaporating sea water. These sources are inexhaustible, and the limit of production by solar evaporation will therefore never be reached.

MILLIONAIRES LABOR AT TRAINING STATION

Los Angeles, Sept. 1.—Out on San Pedro Bay, at the United States Naval Training Station, today are many millionaires, rubbing shoulders with their estate caretakers and trying to forget they are owners of fine yachts and seven-passenger automobiles, because they are serious in this war business of Uncle Sam.
You can't pick them out because no man's clothing is better than another's; you can't tell them at mess because they eat with the relish of men who have labored hard and breathed in the open twenty-four hours of the day.
In the words of Capt. J. C. Cantwell, executive officer of the school: "They are all just red-blooded Americans, the finest in the country, trying to do their patriotic duty, and we do not propose that some of them shall be singled out, distressingly, maybe, to themselves."
But they are there. Scads of 'em. Society favorites. Enough to man a popular summer resort. And altho the school is young, judging from the material at work and the advancement already made, it promises to be one of the best training stations in the country.

Farm Department

Harvesting Soy Beans For Grain.

Washington, D. C.—For the information of farmers who are beginning to grow soy beans for grain rather than for hay, and who are unfamiliar with the handling of the plants under the former conditions, the United States Department of Agriculture will shortly publish Farmers' Bulletin, "Harvesting Soy Beans for Seed." The demand for these seeds for use in the production of oil, feed cake, and other bean products is rapidly increasing and the farmers of the United States are preparing to meet this demand.

The character of growth, the uniform maturing habits and the heavy seed yields of the soy beans, says the bulletin, contribute to the ease of harvesting and recommend the plants for seed production. The many disadvantages which attend the harvesting of cowpeas for seed are not common to the soy bean. When grown for grain alone the shattering of the pods of the soy bean is a serious fault and inexperienced growers are likely to sustain a heavy loss of seed through lack of knowledge and improper handling of the soy-bean plant. The shattering varies with the varieties of the bean. It is well, however, with most varieties to give special attention as maturity approaches to prevent serious losses from this cause.

Time of Harvesting.

In general, the best time to harvest, except where special bean harvesters are used, is when about three-fourths of the leaves have fallen and most of the pods have turned color. If cut at an earlier stage the plants are difficult to care properly, and the yield will be lessened materially on account of the immature grain. On the other hand, if the plants are allowed to become too ripe the pods will shatter before being cut, and much seed will be lost. When special harvesters are used to gather the seed, the plants must reach full maturity to obtain the best results.

Methods of Harvesting.

Various methods of harvesting the crop are in use in different sections where the soy bean is grown largely for seed production. The crop may be cut with ordinary machines, self-rake reapers, self binders, or even with scythes, corn knives, or sickles. The beans also may be harvested with a special bean harvester which gathers the grain from the standing plants.

When the plants are cut before maturity they are cured in shocks and allowed to remain in the field until a convenient time for threshing. If thoroughly dry when they may be housed and threshed later.

Threshing.

Threshing may be done with an ordinary grain separator, but if this machine is used it must be altered somewhat to prevent the cracking of the beans. In some cases a special set of thin concaves is used for threshing beans and in other instances some of the concaves are removed. Good judgment on the part of the thrasher will enable him to adjust the ordinary separator so that the beans may be threshed with little splitting. Special pea and bean separators are on the market and their use may be advisable when large acreages of the beans are to be handled. If thoroughly dry, soy beans can be threshed with a flail. If only a small acreage is to be threshed—an acre or so—this method is practicable and economical. In a few sections a corn shredder has been used to advantage in threshing beans. If properly cured and dried out, the beans shell out very readily with such a machine.

The straw obtained from threshing soy beans for seed is a valuable feed for all kinds of stock. In many sections the straw is baled at the time of threshing and sold to liverymen, dairymen, and stock feeders.

Storage of Seed.

As soy-bean seed spoils rather easily if not properly handled, care should be exercised in curing and storing. After the beans are threshed they should be watched carefully to avoid heating and molding. When thoroughly dry there is no such danger. The best plan, perhaps, is to spread the seeds out on a floor immediately after threshing, and shovel them over from time to time until they are thoroughly dry. After this they may be safely put into sacks or bins. The storeroom should be dry and with a free circulation of air. Soy-bean seed loses its viability rather rapidly, and it is not safe to hold seed for planting purposes more than two seasons. The seeds of the soy bean, unlike those of the cow pea, are rarely attacked by weevils or other grain insects.

Burbank Describes Saper-Wheat Growth.

Los Angeles, Cal., August 29.—

The story of the new Burbank super-wheat is told in full for the first time by Luther Burbank in the September number of Orchard and Farm of Los Angeles. Burbank's chosen medium of publicity. After referring to some unauthorized and unfounded statements that have been published about the new wheat in certain newspapers, Burbank tells what the new grain is and what it can be expected to do when seeded in common soil. "The small field of this new wheat, which was grown this season," he says, "has been the wonder of thousands of people, from almost every State, who have seen it. They have marvelled at the beauty of the growing grain and the size and perfect uniformity of the head, which are very white, square, well filled, and average a little over 4 inches in length.

"On good common valley soil it produced 49.58 bushels an acre, and as it has all been raised from a single kernel, it is perfectly clean and uniform in all respects, all ripening at the same time."

As to the character of the new wheat, Burbank says:

"It resists rust well, and the straw though long, is rigid, and is not subject to lodging. It may, like all other California-grown wheats, be classed as a 'winter' wheat, as all wheats are sown here in the fall to be harvested by next summer."

In telling how he produced the super-wheat, Burbank said it is the result of ten years of "careful and expensive work," which have proved to him that all grain crops may be greatly improved not only in quantity, but in uniformity and quality. As to his practice in grain improvement and in the production of the new super-wheat, he says:

"First I secure quantities of the best variety of wheat from Canada, the United States, Mexico, England, France, Norway, Italy, Argentina, Australia and New Zealand. These are first screened to obtain the largest kernels. This, though not quite as scientific, as the largest grains are sometimes produced by the poorest-producing plants, is the best plan with foreign wheats. Then each variety is carefully hand-picked, selecting only those wheat berries which are of uniform color, large size and well rounded, full and complete in all respects."

Burbank says two of these varieties are then crossed, and by this means varieties are obtained in the second and succeeding generations, and sometimes valuable new qualities of the two varieties are not only combined, but are accentuated. The crossed varieties do not become quite uniform until after several selections and reselections.

He says the new wheat is a combination of one of the best Italian wheats and a popular Australian variety, the "come-back."

"The 'come-back' is, perhaps, the best Australian wheat known," he says, "and in my selections for yield and other good qualities has reappeared oftener than any other variety."

In regard to seeding, Burbank says that 40 to 50 pounds of seed an acre will give the best results with this new grain.

Find Mosaic Treasure.

Cairo, Sept. 1.—A fine mosaic of the early Sixth Century Christian Church has been discovered by British troops in Palestine, northwest of Beersheba, under works recently occupied by the Turks. It bears a Graeco-Syria inscription referring to a Saint George. Bones were found beneath the mosaic. The mosaic has been somewhat injured by Turkish trench digging, but is, nevertheless, a fine specimen. It is stored here for the present.

U-BOAT SUNK AND FOUR OF ITS CREW KILLED

A Gulf Port, August 30.—The capture and destruction of a German submarine by an American destroyer and the killing of four members of the submarine's crew who had boarded a British steamer is reported by William Raymond Brown, an American seaman, who arrived here yesterday aboard a British steamer.

According to the story told by Brown the submarine emerged near the steamer, but soon after she came alongside, the American destroyer came up and destroyed the U-boat.

After the submarine was destroyed, the men who had previously gone aboard the British steamer tried to take charge of the vessel.

One of the German officers was hit on the head and killed as he was going to the engine room and three others were killed in the fight that followed.

Brown said that only two Germans remained aboard the submarine after she came alongside the steamer.

The Germans who were not killed in the fight on the steamer were turned over to the destroyer as prisoners.

AKRON GETTING TO BE PORT FOR MISSING MEN

Akron, O., Sept. 1.—Akron is the city of missing lovers.

Thousands of men flock to get employment in the many big industrial plants here, leaving behind wives, sweethearts and relatives. Some of them do not give their correct names, authorities have found. The city rooming houses are filled with men "who have a past."

Letters pour into the police chief's office asking him to locate "John Smith who deserted his family" or "who promised to marry."

And they are rarely found, for the "John Smiths" come in droves and they move about from one rooming house to another and the police have a hard time trying to locate them.

"MOONSHINER" TURNS; WRECKS ILLICIT STILL

Guion, Ark., Aug. 25.—Moonshine whisky is disappearing from the Ozarks. A man regarded as the pioneer moonshiner of this section has voluntarily destroyed his fifty-gallon copper still, which has run according to his estimate, 10,000 gallons of liquor since he put it in use soon after the Civil War. Thru all the years the still was not found by the "revenuers." Having been converted to prohibition, the moonshiner called his friends and told them he was thru. Then he hacked up the still and sold the copper as junk. His name is being withheld so that he will not be prosecuted by the Government.

FOOD SCARCE IN OSTEND, SAYS GERMAN DESERTER

Havre, Sept. 1.—Milk, butter, eggs and vegetables are not obtainable in Ostend, Belgium, according to a deserter from the German army who has arrived here. Meat is scarce, and when obtainable the administration of the commune distributes 75 grammes weekly to each person. Coffee, he says, brings 25 francs a kilogram and sugar is not obtainable. Three hundred grammes of bread is distributed daily to each person by the American Relief Commission.

The residents of Ostend, he adds, are depressed by misery, but are always hopeful of victory. The general morale of the population is good.

DO JUSTICE, ROOSEVELT MESSAGE TO TROOPS

New York, Sept. 1.—Theodore Roosevelt, at the request of the New York Bible Society, which is trying to put a copy of the Scriptures in the hands of every American fighting man, has sent the following message thru the organization to the soldiers and sailors of the nation:

"The teachings of the New Testament are foreshadowed in Micah's verse: 'What more doth the Lord require of thee than to do justice, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?'"

"Do justice; and therefore fight valiantly against the armies of Germany and Turkey, for these nations in this crisis stand for the reign of Moloch and Beelzebub on this earth."

"Love mercy; treat prisoners well, succor the wounded; treat every woman as if she were your sister; care for the little children, and be tender with old and helpless."

"Walk humbly; you will do so if you study the life and teachings of the Savior."

"May the God of justice and mercy have you in His keeping."

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Mendoreville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak."

I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught."

Seventy years of successful use has made Thedford's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member, of every family, at times, need the help that Black-Draught can give in cleansing the system and relieving the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, lazy liver, etc. You cannot keep well unless your stomach, liver and bowels are in good working order. Keep them that way. Try Black-Draught. It acts promptly, gently and in a natural way. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c. a package—One cent a dose. All druggists.

DETECTIVES HELD MEN TO COLLECT REWARD

RELATIVES OF SOLDIERS AND SAILORS BEING DEFRAUDED OUT OF LARGE SUMS.

New York, Sept. 1.—In appearing here to-day against two men charged with impersonating Government officers and with detaining an American marine beyond the expiration of his leave of absence to collect a Government reward of $50 for the return of deserters, Harold A. Content, Assistant United States District Attorney, asserted that relatives of soldiers and sailors are being defrauded by private detectives, and that the Government had determined to put a stop to such practices and frauds.

These relatives, Mr. Content said, are being "shaken down" by the alleged detectives with threats that men they arrest on desertion charges might be shot.

The two men arrested, Harry A. Reed and James E. Eaton, were held under $5,000 bail each for examination September 8.

CHICAGO COUNCIL CENSURES MAYOR

MAJORITY COMMENDS GOVERNOR'S ACTION TOWARD PACIFISTS.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—A vote which served as a test at the special meeting of the City Council this afternoon indicated that of the forty-eight Aldermen present at the time of the vote forty were in favor of the resolution commending Gov. Lowden (and by implication censuring the Mayor) for his stand against pacifist agitation.

Mayor William Hale Thompson presided over the meeting, called for the purpose of commending Gov. Lowden's stand against the meeting of the pacifists. The Mayor permitted the meeting in defiance of the Governor. There was talk of calling another special meeting for tomorrow to consider the actions of the Mayor himself.

Police were scattered throughout the City Hall and on guard in the Council Chamber when the session began. The Mayor was applauded by the gallery as he entered the chamber. Many of the police were engaged, it was said, in a judicious discrimination as to letting spectators into the gallery, and this section gave the Mayor a full minute's applause when he entered the Council Chamber. The Mayor smiled and bowed. He was accompanied by Samuel A. Ettelson, Corporation Counsel; Michael J. Flaherty, president of the Board of Local Improvements; Adam F. Weckler, Harbor Master, and James W. Breen, Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Signal for Battle.

Alderman Toman, as soon as preliminary routine was over, asked that the Lowden resolution, which he prepared, be adopted. This was the signal for battle. Alderman Anderson, Rodriguez and Michaelson objected. Rodriguez is a Socialist, Michaelson the Thompson floor leader. A motion to suspend the rules led to a roll call, which gave the Aldermen a chance to express themselves.

"What right," asked Alderman Rodriguez, "did the Governor have to issue a proclamation and to glorify himself in violating the Constitution of the United States? That is the question here. You can be driven by the press, but I refuse to be. The press has a scientific method of lying, anyhow. If the press was sincere in denouncing the Peace Council it would not have printed the Pope's peace proposals."

"That's foreign stuff," interrupted Alderman Horne.

"Oh, no it isn't," replied Alderman Rodriguez. "I attended the peace meeting myself. It was a quiet, orderly affair. We have a right to disagree with our country if we please. The people of Chicago don't want war."

The latter declaration evoked applause from the galleries. Alderman Bowler exclaimed hotly:

"If I had been at that meeting there wouldn't have been any meeting."

Encouragement for Germans.

Alderman Toman declared that the Kaiser encouraged his soldiers with news such as emanated from Chicago recently. Fifty-six votes are necessary to suspend the Council rules. The roll call showed only forty-eight Aldermen present.

Alderman Toman then moved that the Council sit as a committee of the whole to consider the resolution. The Thompson forces countered with a motion that the resolution be referred to the committee on schools. The Council voted down the Administration motion, 38 to 9, one not voting.

REDUCED CONSUMPTION OF SUGAR IS DEMANDED

Washington, Sept. 3.—Reduced consumption of sugar was asked of the American people today by the Food Administration that a threatened shortage in the Allied countries may be averted. Lack of ships to move the Cuban and Hawaiian crops promptly, it is declared, makes it necessary that this country share its sugar supply with Europe.

"The conservation asked of the American people," the Administration's statement says, "does not necessarily demand great sacrifices."

It only needs the elimination of waste and the careful use of sugar to enable America to make up the amount required by the needs of the Allies.

It is not actually a lack of sugar that emphasizes the need for conservation in the United States so much as it is inability to get the sugar to the places where needed.

The world's shortage is comparatively small and is confined to Europe. With the stocks on hand in this country and in Cuba and those now coming from Hawaii it would appear that with proper management and with speculation and hoarding eliminated there need be no scarcity, even in the immediate future while awaiting the new crop.

"The lack of adequate shipping facilities to reach the sources of supply and the imperative demand to supply the needs of our Allies constitute the sugar problem of the United States."

The world's sugar supply is estimated this year at 13,659,792 tons, against an average production of 18,712,997. American consumption for the first half of the present year was slightly larger than last year, which the Food Administration attributes to hoarding within the household.

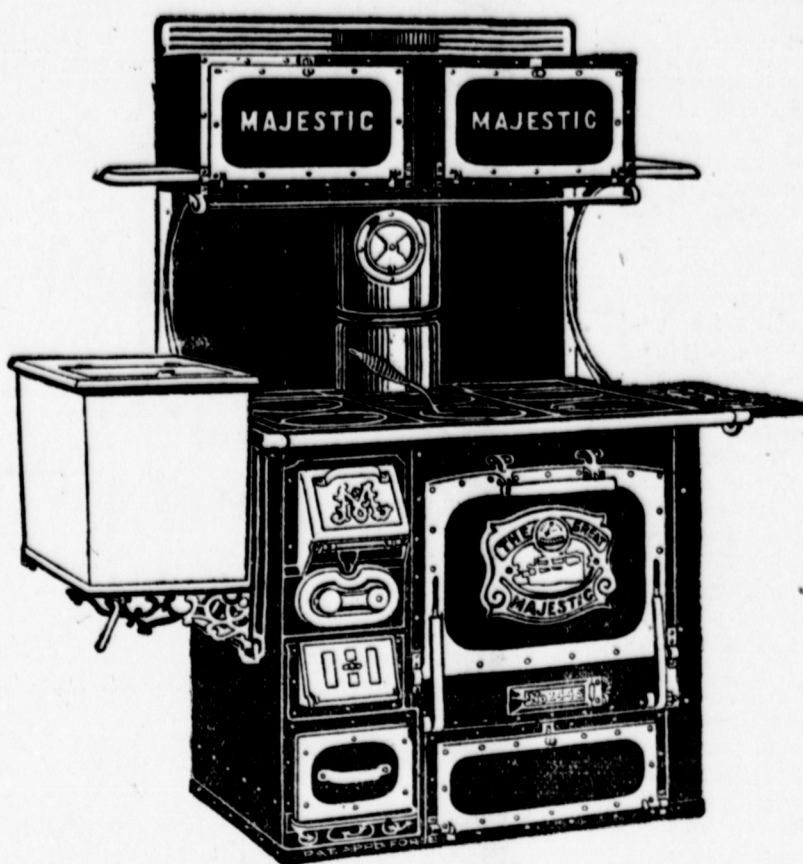

The Cuban crop this year was up to normal, as were the Hawaiian, Philippine and Java yields. These supplies, however, can be moved but slowly because of the absence of ships. Both the American cane and beet crops will be larger than normal.

Conserved Nation's Live Stock. The American Railway Association's Commission on Car Service has asked all the railroads to make every effort to prevent the great economic loss resulting from the killing of live stock on railway tracks.

The thousands of horses and mules that are killed on railroads every year would fill the artillery requirements of many regiments, and the thousands of cattle, hogs and sheep likewise killed would provide meat for thousands of soldiers.

This economic waste can be greatly reduced if locomotive engineers take every precaution to avoid striking, if stock owners will keep animals in fenced enclosures, if town officials will enforce ordinances prohibiting stock from roaming at large and if section men drive stock off the right-of-way and keep farm gates closed and fences and cattle guards in good repair.

Unable to Give Bond.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 3.—Friends of Charles Barbour, the former superintendent of finances in the Owensboro postoffice, who confessed to having systematically stolen $7,300 during the past four years from the Federal government, have been unable to secure signers for his $10,000 bond, and he is in the Daviess county jail.

Barbour refuses to state what he did with the money he admits having stolen from the government, and while it is known that he played the slot machines and punchboards, it is generally believed that it was impossible for him to have spent the entire amount in this manner, and because of the economy practiced in his living in other manners it is a mystery how he disposed of the money.
